

Greetings Mustangs,

The daily updates for next week will transition to Tuesdays and Thursdays through April 30. As another week comes to a close, we owe a debt of gratitude to the faculty, staff, and administrators who have moved mountains to bring the classroom to our students. One of our strengths as a college is our ability to lead with an innovative, positive mindset. I want to thank Michael Bobo, Brady Kerr, and the entire Distance Education Committee for their leadership in creating a logo we can proudly display as a badge of honor for all of our collaborative efforts. Norco College is online!
