

COTW Survey 2014

Overall, the COTW survey indicated that the ranking process is perceived as a process that is effectively meeting the needs of units, and has a high level of support from all employee groups.

Appendix A- COTW Survey 2014

As you are aware, for the past several budget cycles, Norco college has been implementing and refining processes by which staffing and equipment needs identified in instructional, administrative and student

