

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

In cases of academic dishonesty by a student, a faculty member may take any one of the following actions:

1. The faculty member may: a) reduce the score on test(s) or assignment(s); b) reduce the grade in the course; or c) fail the student in the course if the weight of the test(s) or assignment(s) warrants course failure. The faculty member may recommend to the College Deans of Instruction that the student be suspended from the courses. If the course suspension is recommended, the College Deans of Instruction will review the information regarding the charge of academic dishonesty, notify the student, consult with the faculty member regarding the recommendation for suspension, and prescribe appropriate due process procedures.
2. If the suspension is upheld, the College Deans of Instruction will make note of the offense in the student's educational records. A second instance of academic dishonesty may result in expulsion proceedings. Any enrollment, tuition, and other applicable fees will not be refunded as a result of disciplinary action for academic misconduct.
